From the Pastor's Study...

“Stinky Feet and Salvation Souls”

Once upon a time, there was a group of friends who were trying to make it into the kingdom of heaven. As so often happened, these friends would debate about where they would sit in heaven based on which of them was the “greatest.” One day, as they were celebrating the Passover, their Rabbi stood up, took off his coat and proceeded to fill a pitcher with water and set about to washing the men’s feet. Now, these were no ordinary feet; these were travelers feet with just a thin strap of leather between them and every dirty, dung laden road they had travelled that week. Stinky gym socks were no match for what was caked on these men’s feet! And yet their Rabbi, who clearly shouldn’t have been doing the work of the slaves, was washing their feet! As the Rabbi finished, he stood up and dried his hands as the friends looked at each other in wonder and awe, and then he said:

“Do you understand what I have done for you? You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.”

If the story sounds familiar, it’s because it’s based on Luke 22:24-30 and John 13:1-17. Jesus’ call to serve is the same today as it was almost 2000 years ago. If we want to be great in our community and in the eyes of Jesus, then we must be willing to serve. The good news is that, through the Holy Spirit, we have all been given gifts and talents to use for the building of God’s kingdom. All we need to do is figure out what those gifts are and where to use them for God’s glory.

Pastor’s Office Hours
Monday thru Thursday, 9:00 am –
12:00 pm and by appointment.

Stropich after office hours, please call
937-903-9487.

To that end, February 2nd during worship, we will be taking a “Time and Talent” Survey. It’s a simple tool that will help us to figure out where we can serve the church by naming what we like to do. Maybe you like to bake bread? If so, we could use your help on the Communion Preparation Team! Or do you like to drive? We could use your help when a senior or ill member of our church needs to get to a doctor’s appointment. After worship the “Time and Talent” Surveys will be collected and the information will be tabulated and given to our Session so they know who might like to serve in a variety of ministry opportunities.

You also will have an opportunity to meet the Session Ruling Elders and see what ministries they oversee during the Youth Souper Bowl luncheon after worship. Check out the tables and see which ministries the Lord may be leading you to take part.

Because it’s not a question about who will be the greatest in heaven: that’s clearly Jesus who served humanity to the point of death and through his resurrection. The question is: will you follow in his footsteps as a servant of your fellow brothers and sisters in the Lord?

In His Glory,

Pastor Nadia

EPC Q&A: Why are we called the “Evangelical Presbyterian Church”?

This is a continuing Q&A article series regarding questions which the congregation may have about the EPC or practices at Providence. If you have a question, feel free to share it with Pastor Nadia at nstropich@hotmail.com

This month’s question is “Why are we called the Evangelical Presbyterian Church”? And it’s a great question because the founding Teaching and Ruling Elders of the EPC were intentional about how they named the new Presbyterian movement they were creating in 1981. So, let’s go word by word and examine why we’re the E.P.C.

Evangelical: The word ‘evangelical’ is from “the Greek word euangelion, ‘good news,’ or ‘gospel.’ In its most general sense evangelical means being characterized by a concern for the essential core of the Christian message, which proclaims the possibility of salvation through the person and work of Jesus Christ.”¹ For the founders of the EPC, they wanted the new denominational movement to be marked by an understanding that we hold essential doctrines about the one, holy Triune God, the fall and salvation of humankind and our place and purpose in the world as followers of Jesus Christ. They also wanted to make sure that the denominational movement would not lose sight of Jesus’ command to share this good news with the world, as stated in Matthew 28:18-20. Therefore, we are “Evangelical” in that we seek to spread the Good News of salvation while holding to the Essentials of our Faith.¹

Presbyterian: This refers to our Reformed heritage, system of governance and some basic theological underpinnings of our denominational movement. When Martin Luther nailed his 95 Thesis to the doors of Wittenberg Church he didn’t know that he would be fanning the embers into a flame that became the Reformation movement in history. That movement created numerous denominations, one being the Presbyterians who followed the teachings of John Calvin. Calvin not only wrote numerous theological works but also outlined a system of government that was adopted by Geneva and the Presbyterian churches in the mid-1500. This form of government allows checks and balances between the “courts” of the church: Session, Presbytery and General Assembly. Sound familiar? The United States government was also set up in a similar fashion to the Presbyterian governance model with checks and balances between the branches of government.

Church: At the end of the day, we’re all about being the hands and of Christ. We understand that while God’s invisible church consists of all believers, past, present and future, the visible church exists as local congregations who worship and minister together weekly. As the EPC we are a fellowship of congregations united together through our church government (polity), doctrine and love of Jesus Christ!

Fun Fact: You may have noticed that the EPC does not define itself as a “denomination.” That’s because the EPC understand itself to be a global movement seeking to save the lost for Jesus Christ. We’re not just another church on the corner but one whose message and mission extends to the ends of the earth for God’s glory alone! You can check out more fun facts about the EPC at www.epc.org

Chicken Pastry & Silent Auction
Including: Bake Sale & Craft Corner

CPSA takes place on the third Friday each March. -- This year it will be March 20th, 11:00am-7:00pm. Look for our table at the "Spiritual Job Fair" on Feb 2nd, when you come to partake in the Youth "Souper Bowl" soup and sandwich fundraiser.

Calling all Cooks, Bakers, Culinary Experts and Apprentices! -- Baked goods and other kitchen treats are big sellers. We are looking for donations of your favorite foods: cakes, pies, cookies, candy, snacks, jelly, pickles, brownies, etc. Pound cakes are popular; sold whole and as half cakes. You can donate in/on containers ready-to-eat, or provide a certificate for folks to purchase as a "Make on Request" item. Surprise us with something new and different! We appreciate all donations. Sign-up sheets will be available on Feb 2nd and until the week of Mar 20th.

Crafters and Creators, Bring It! -- There will be a "Craft Corner" to showcase your handiwork. Do you knit, crochet, make jewelry? Are you a woodworker, potter, weaver, painter or paper artist? Whatever your talent we would be glad to display and sell your donations.

Volunteers Needed, Loved, Appreciated, Needed, Worshipped, Adored, Needed! -- If you've been at PPC, for even just one year, you know the labor and energy it takes to coordinate and execute any one of our three main fundraisers (CPSA, Fish Fry, Youth BBQ). It takes all of us. Think you are burned out, or wanna do something different this year? Instead of signing up for one area for one large block of time, consider signing up in different areas for smaller blocks of time. You can mix up the different tasks--you get the pleasure of enjoying the company of different fellow-volunteers at different stations. Whatever you can do and can sign up for, your participation is truly appreciated, and we know you will have fun working with PPC family. Sign-up sheets will be at the Feb 2nd "Spiritual Job Fair."

If you have any questions regarding the Bake Sale and Craft Corner, you can contact Wendy Stephenson at 919-894-2822, or <wendystephenson@me.com>.

Any questions about the rest of CPSA, you can contact Donna Stolle at 860-214-6698, <dmstolle6330@gmail.com>.

Thank you in advance to everyone considering making material donations, signing up to serve the day of the event, and to those whose sleeves are already rolled-up and knocking this stuff out!
