

PRESBYTERIANS AT THE CROSSROADS

Providence Presbyterian Church

November 2019

From the Pastor's Study...

May the Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord lift His countenance upon you, and give you peace.

Numbers 6:24-26

November Scripture Passage

¹¹ You will be made rich in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God. ¹² This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of God's people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God. ¹³ Because of the service by which you have proved yourselves, men will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else. ¹⁴ And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you.

¹⁵ Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

2 Corinthians 9:11-15

Our Mission Statement

*To disciple others in Christ by sharing the gospel
Through our words and actions,
To nurture existing Christians into a mature faith
by worship, fellowship and Christian education,
To prayerfully serve God by worshiping Him
Through Jesus Christ
By the power of the Holy Spirit,
And to serve our neighbors as Jesus taught us.*

Encourage each other and build each other up.

1 Thessalonians 5:11

Interim Minister, Reverend Nadia Stropich

The people were waiting expectantly and were all wondering in their hearts if John might possibly be the Christ. John answered them all, “I baptize you with water. But one more powerful than I will come, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.” And with many other words John exhorted the people and preached the good news to them.” - Luke 3:15-16, 18

I grew up watching musicals with my mom and I don't think there isn't a Rogers and Hammerstein musical I haven't seen. So, it's probably because musicals are so engrained in my mind that when I think about joining you all at Providence, I can't help but hum, “Getting to Know You” from The King and I. For those who may be unfamiliar with this song, it is sung by Anna, the new English teacher to the children of the King of Siam. (Of which there are about twenty kids ranging from a teenager to a preschooler.) In the chorus they sing, “Getting to know you/Getting to know all about you/Getting to like you/ Getting to hope you like me/Because of all the beautiful and new things I'm learning about you day by day!” As I step into the role of Transitional Pastor at Providence, I feel a bit like Anna—I'm going to be learning all these beautiful and new things about Providence and I hope you feel the same about me.

But as much as I am going to enjoy getting to know you and hope that you will enjoy getting to know Shawn, Madelyn and me, I don't want us to become the focus of our time together. Yes, we want to share our life with you and I hope that you will feel comfortable to share your life with us, but that's not why God ultimately called me to Providence. God called me, just as he calls all of us, to point to his Son, Jesus, here at Providence and in the community.

John the Baptist was one of the greatest “Pointers to Jesus.” He wasn't the Christ whom people were waiting expectantly for; he was just the one to point the way. In the same manner, our calling as Christians is not to point to ourselves but to Christ. This is especially important as we walk this time of transition in the life of Providence Presbyterian Church. As we get to know each other's history and God's desired path for the future of Providence, we will find many ways to take part in ministry that points to Jesus and invite others to join us on the adventure of a lifetime.

I look forward to this year of being able to minister with and to each of you at Providence, but I hope that if I do nothing else, it may be said that I was like John the Baptist - preparing the way for God's desired future for Providence and always pointing to Christ!

To God be the glory,
Rev. Nadia Stropich

Harvest Sunday Is November 3, 2019

Please be in prayer as we will come together immediately after the service for a meal and to have a conversation on the growing financial needs of 2020. The Fellowship Committee will provide the main course and members are requested to bring sides.

Everyone is invited!

Stewardship Sunday November 10, 2019

We come together and present our pledges for the upcoming year. Please complete a pledge card and bring it to worship on this day. If you cannot attend services on Stewardship Sunday, please feel free to place the pledge card in the offering plate or mail it directly to the church to the attention of the collections treasurer, Ann Benson.

Please note - Donation Options

Providence Presbyterian Church can accept donations of stocks and other securities. To make a donation or obtain more information, please contact Ann Benson, Collections Treasurer.

The Children's Christmas Program

"Follow the Star"
Is scheduled for Sunday, December 8 at 5:00 pm

Practices for all Children and Youth will begin on Sunday, October 20th starting at 4:00pm in the Upper Fellowship Hall. We will be assigning parts on the first night and handing out scripts. We have lots of areas that could use volunteer help: set design, stage hands, costume fitters/seamstresses and "kid wranglers". If you would like to help with this awesome production, please see Vickie Faircloth, Brittany Jones or Susan Rudd.

POINSETTIA SALES

Poinsettias for Advent - We will be accepting Poinsettia orders with payment through November 24. All the plants will be delivered to the church on Sat., Nov. 30, where they will be staged to adorn the sanctuary until after services on Christmas Eve. Feel free to take home your purchases after that time. Complete the order form, supply the "In Honor Of" and "In Memory Of" info., include payment and place the form and payment in the offering plate. Checks are to be payable to "Providence Presbyterian Church." "Poinsettia Sales" should appear on the memo line of the check. Thanks for your support. Any questions please contact Lisa Nelms.

It's that time of year to pack a shoebox!

A shoebox of surprises for children around the world! Our church has chosen to partner again with Samaritan's Purse through Operation Christmas Child. The annual project is an evangelistic effort to reach children and their families for the Lord. The boxes are then shipped to barrios, mission hospitals, refugee camps, orphanages, etc. In today's worship bulletin you will find a "How To Pack a Shoebox" instruction envelope. Our Mission and Outreach Committee will be providing the gift boxes. Collection of the boxes will be on November 17 and November 24. Additional information will also be provided in the back of our pews. These can be read before worship begins, but are to remain in the pew for other church members to read each Sunday up until our OCC special outreach is completed.

Advent Decorating

The Providence Presbyterian Women are seeking assistance with decorating our facilities for the upcoming holiday season. Advent decorations will be put up starting at 9:00 am on November 30. The entire church is asked to help as we all enjoy the decorations. For questions please see Lisa Nelms.

Tree of Warmth

M&O is sponsoring our “Tree of Warmth” again this year to collect new and gently used hats, scarves, gloves and mittens for children. Items collected will be distributed to teachers who attend PPC, to be given to children who are in need of these items. The tree will be set up in the UFH foyer along with the Advent decorations on Saturday, Nov 30. Please bring your donations in and hang them on the tree, or place them at the base of the tree. New or gently used jackets will also be accepted. Please place those at the base of the tree. Thank you so much.

Congregational Meeting - November 17th

A Congregational Meeting has been called by the Session immediately following worship on Sunday, November 17, 2019. The purpose of the meeting is to elect the Elder Class of 2022. The slate of nominees unanimously recommended by the Officer Nominating Committee include Vickie Faircloth, John Kopanski, and Donna Stolle. Nominations from the floor will be accepted. If you plan to nominate a fellow church member for the Class of 2022, please confer with them in advance of the meeting to confirm that they are willing to serve.

Highlights of the Minutes from a Called Session Meeting, October 3, 2019

A called meeting on the Session was held on October 3, 2019 to review and approve a contract offer to Reverend Nadia Stropich proposed by the Transitional Search Committee. Rev. Carole McCartney served as Moderator.

The committee recommends extending an offer to Reverend Nadia Stropich to serve as Transitional Pastor. for one year with the option to renew the contract.

A motion was made and seconded to approve offering the one-year contract with renewal options to Reverend Stropich. The vote was unanimous in favor of the contract.

The Clerk of the Session will extend the offer, sending a signed PDF contract to Reverend Stropich and Tom Pitman, chair of the Commission of Ministry. The clerk will inform the Executive Presbytery of New Hope Presbytery that an offer is to be extended.

Highlights of the Minutes of the October 14, 2019 Stated Session Meeting

Correspondence

Clerk of Session provided a written report of communications. These included:

- Conversation with Rev. Ted Churn, Executive Presbyter of New Hope Presbytery, to discuss the steps that Providence must complete to have a letter of dismissal issued to EPC Presbytery of the Mid-Atlantic. Following a vote by the Presbytery in favor of the terms of dismissal on October 26th, three things are required:
 - Initial payment of $12,000 must be received by the Presbytery,
 - All original copies of minutes of the Session must be turned over, and
 - A quitclaim deed must be executed.
- October 12th – Email from Phil Stump of PMA and copied to Rev. Nadia Stropich acknowledging that the 14 Providence elders who received training and were examined are considered to have “passed.”

Open and Actionable Items

Finance – Session reviewed copies of and approved the September 2019 financial report. General Fund giving improved in September and spending year-to-date continued to track below budget.

	General Fund Additions	General Fund Expenses
September 2019	$23,512.07	$22,606.21
Year to Date	$206,729.42	$205,268.79

The church will have non-budgeted expenses associated with the dismissal settlement payment to New Hope Presbytery and the employment and relocation of Rev. Stropich. Providence continues to pay severance to Rev. Davis. The Development Fund, a designated fund established to receive donations to help cover the costs of leaving PCUSA, has sufficient funds to cover the $12,000 payment to New Hope Presbytery for 2019.

Homecoming receipts are $27,184.59 to date.

Budget – Session reviewed the 2020 Budget. A motion was approved to add $1,500 to the budget for Presbytery of the Mid-Atlantic per Member Askings. This is approximately what Providence gave to New Hope Presbytery in prior years. Session was reminded that we must assume that we will be paying Rev. Jim Davis for the full nine months of his separation agreement. This amounts to $23,400.34 in 2020.

Personnel Committee – A motion was approved for Jeff Wood, inactive elder, to serve as the committee chair through December 2019 and as point of contact for staff until Rev. Stropich arrives.

Children’s Christian Education – Session approved a new program for children of the church. The program is called, “PPC Kidz” and would in part replace the LOGOS program. Fun events for both the children and youth are planned through the spring of 2020.

Transitional Pastor Search Committee – Session was informed that Rev. Nadia Stropich has accepted the Session’s offer of a contract to serve as our transitional pastor for one year, with an option to extend.

Property – Session approved the installation of a light pole in the median of the upper parking lot next to the crosswalk. The family of Pauline Jones have offered to fund the installation and pay the monthly with funds in the Pauline Jones Memorial Fund. A small memorial plaque will be placed at the base of the light pole.

By-Laws Modification – Acting as Officers of the Corporation, Session Elders voted unanimously to modify the Corporate by-laws and reduce the size of the Session from 12 to 9 members

Committee Updates

Adult Christian Education – David Collier and Kent Walton will serve as class leaders for the College/Career Sunday School class.

Children’s Christian Education – Vickie Faircloth reminded Session of the upcoming Family Fall Festival on October 27th.

Youth Christian Education – The Youth BBQ brought in approximately $7,700.

Old Business – Rich Lambert sent an updated Policy manual to each elder. Rich has undertaken revision and reorganization of the church Policy and Procedures manual. Elders are asked to review their sections for updates or changes.

New Business – A volunteer is sought to update and maintain the scrolling announcements on the monitor in the foyer of the Upper Fellowship Hall.

Next stated session meeting will be held November 11, 2019 at 7pm.
